Loushonda Myers, C.M., A.M., and M.M.,
Plaintiffs,

MOTION FOR ACCESS TO PACER

vs.

The State of North Carolina, et al.
Defendants.

The Plaintiffs, Loushonda Myers; C.M.; A.M.; and M.M., are now petitioning this Court for free access to the electronic filing system of Pacer in order to file documents in the above civil suit. The Plaintiffs present the following:

A. Access will avoid unnecessary burden and expense.

The Plaintiffs are proceeding in this suit In Forma Pauperis and have shown and/or proven that their financial status could not handle the burden of paying the filing fees to access the Court in order to obtain remedies and/or rectify wrongs for injuries, harms, and/or damages done, which is of a substantive, unalienable Right to the Plaintiffs. The Plaintiffs are proceeding against numerous Defendants to which the Plaintiffs must deliver copies of documents to them. Some of these Defendants have multiple attorneys and this increases the costs of sending copies of papers, documents, motions, and/or likewise. There exists a reasonable, secure, and/or accessible form of delivery for delivery of these documents, and this delivery will in fact lessen the burden and costs of the Plaintiffs, as well as the Defendants. It is a fact that the Court must seek to do justice in a manner in which burden and costs will be the lessened, and the Plaintiffs have already demonstrated that they are in fact being burdened by the need to deliver documents to numerous Defendants and/or their attorneys. The Plaintiffs have in fact initiated this suit as a matter of Right, and this Right must not be obstructed by the inability of the Plaintiffs to afford the costs of pursuing this Right when there is in fact a means to have documents delivered in which both the Plaintiffs and the Defendants can reasonably access without undue burden and expense.

B. Access will promote public access and information.

Allowing the Plaintiffs access will also increase the availability of the Plaintiffs to access documents that have already been filed in this suit, and increase the ability of the Plaintiffs to access information and cases that have been used and/or cited in this Court. The Plaintiffs are not bar attorneys and do not have the ability to access the wide ranging sources that the Defendants and their attorneys have, however access to the Pacer system will in fact allow the Plaintiffs access to public information and increase the availability of the public records of this Court.

Therefore the Plaintiffs are respectfully demanding the following:

1. This Court allow the Plaintiffs free access to the Pacer electronic filing system that is currently being utilized in this suit; and
2. Any other remedy that this Court finds just and proper.

Respectfully submitted, this 3rd day of November, 2013.
